

Grants Awarded in October 2022

Social

Somerset and Avon Rape and Sexual Abuse Support

Creating systems change that will empower survivors of sibling sexual abuse to have a voice, build communities of support, and access the specialist help they need.

£60,000

Street Connect

Transforming lives through facilitating new church partnerships in deprived areas.

£57,378

The Dalai Lama Centre for Compassion

Building better pro-social connection in the early years through the creation and UK dissemination of a Key Stage 1 social-emotional-ethical learning curriculum.

£32,750

University of East Anglia (UEA)

A realist evaluation of 'caringlife', a Digital Life Story Work application used to promote the positive mental health of, and mental health support available to looked-after children.

£58,029.85

Medical

Centre for Child and Family Justice Research, Lancaster University

Giving hope and minimising trauma when the state intervenes at birth due to safeguarding concerns.

£59,607

City University of London

Wellbeing In Stroke and Aphasia (WISA): developing an innovative, accessible service to support the psychological wellbeing of people living with aphasia.

£59,650

King's Global Health Partnerships

Developing Point of Care Ultrasound to quickly diagnose and determine treatment for medical emergencies in Sierra Leone.

£60,000

Religious

Centre for Cultural Witness

Aiming to change the public narrative about Christian faith by offering an intelligent, accessible form of Christian faith in wider public discourse and building confidence in the theological and intellectual sturdiness of the faith among lay Christians.

£61,818

Sir Halley Stewart Trust

CSW

Christian human rights organisation empowering media professionals to accurately report freedom of religion or belief violations to challenge societal misconceptions and improve FoRB in Mexico and Nigeria.

£58,575