

Grants Awarded in June 2017

Medical

Cicely Saunders International

Improving capacity for care for the dying in Africa through the vision of Dame Cicely Saunders:
Sir Halley Stewart African Palliative Care Scholar
£40,000

The FASD Trust

First ever UK wide prevalence study on FAS (foetal alcohol syndrome)
To ascertain over a 13 month period the incidence (number of new cases diagnosed) of FAS in the UK and Republic of Ireland amongst children aged 0-15 years
£29,790

Keele University

Childhood risk factors for low health literacy in adults
£28,568

The University of Sheffield

Creating family focused information materials for rare paediatric conditions
£5,000

Religious

Church Urban Fund (CUF)

Social action, church growth and discipleship: Understanding, measuring, responding
£50,000

3FF

Faith Awareness Training and consultancy for UK-based LGBT organisations
£38,870

Social

Rees Centre, University of Oxford

Improving the emotional, social and psychological well-being of looked after children: testing the Shared Training and Assessment for Well-Being package (STrAWB)
£35,687.10

School-Home Support

Developing good practice around secondary school transition support for disadvantaged children and families
£34,840

The Open University, UK

Mitigating loneliness, social isolation and enhancing wellbeing in older people through photo-sharing on social media platforms
£25,399.38

Iceni Ipswich

Augment and pilot provision in Ipswich and Suffolk for those who have committed violence, abuse, coercion or control (VACC) within an intimate or family relationship

£22,000

The University of Westminster

Saving lives: New approaches to suicide and self-harm prevention in probation practice

£5,000