

Grants Awarded in October 2015

Medical

University of Sheffield

To support a project to develop a Clinical Outcome Assessment for Wolf-Hirschhorn syndrome
£53,745

St George's, University of London

Support for the project Taking prevention to the patient: Evaluation of a point-of-care 'screen and treat' strategy for the prevention of cryptococcal meningitis in HIV Infected Adults in Sub-Saharan Africa £49,750

Plymouth Hospitals NHS Trust

Renewal grant towards the Accelerated Long-term Forgetting in Memory Clinics project
£25,460

University of Liverpool, Sanyu Research Unit

Towards the development of a Baby-Saver Tray for use in Uganda – a safe way to resuscitate premature babies whilst still allowing them to receive the benefits of delayed cord clamping
£14,300

University of Roehampton

Renewal funding towards the project Early detection of acute vertebral fractures by a novel, non-invasive screening technique
£5,000

Social

Womankind Worldwide

To support the project Empowering rural women in Liberia through the use of mobile technology
£34,500

Loughborough University, Centre for Child and Family Research

To fund the project Children's Therapeutic Residential Care: An International Summit on Pathways to Evidence-Based Practice
£15,000

Dame Hannah Rogers Trust

To fund a new programme of Training Internal Makaton Trainers within key frontline services such as Victim Support, the Police, the Fire Brigade and NHS
£9,800

The Dartington Hall Trust

To support LandTherapy Works - a partnership project between Dartington LandWorks and Relate £5,000

Religious

St Albans Cathedral

To fund a Community Learning Officer post within the Alban, Britain's First Saint: Telling the Whole Story project
£51,750