

Grants Awarded in October 2021

Medical

Manchester Metropolitan University

Into the wild: Identifying the main challenges to real-world function in young stroke survivors.
£44,817

University of Surrey

Developing novel rapid diagnostics for neglected parasitic diseases
£59,951

Lincoln University

The use of big data to describe mental healthcare pathways for depression disorders in rural settings: trajectory analysis and translation of big data findings into accessible formats for the general public.
£26,983.25

Social

Why me? Victims for Restorative Justice

Development of an economic evaluation model for Restorative Justice conferencing in England and Wales
£59,066.88

Respond

Respond>Resolve>Recover: Supporting multiply disadvantaged families with learning disabilities and/or autism to resolve conflict and recover from complex trauma and abuse together.
£60,000

Gather Hub Ltd

Decolonising sanitation data: a global roadmap for increasing local ownership of development data to improve sanitation for vulnerable urban communities
£28,644.85

Third Generation Project/Univ of St Andrews

Shifting education out of the classroom: community education for climate action
£45,548

Religious

Goldsmiths, University of London

The use of religious resources in secular funerals challenging narratives of religious decline
£58,174

Theos think tank

Precarity, Community and Spiritual Capital
£30,000

Registered Charity No: 208491